

A quill pen with a brass nib and a red wax seal on a piece of aged, crumpled paper. The quill is positioned diagonally in the upper right corner. The wax seal is a circular, textured red seal located in the lower left quadrant. The paper is yellowed and crumpled, resting on a dark wooden surface. The title 'The Sins of Sor Juana' is written in a large, elegant black cursive font across the center of the page. Below the title, the author's name 'By Karen Zacarías' is written in a smaller, similar cursive font. A piece of light brown twine is looped around the left side of the paper, passing through the wax seal.
