IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

H E N in the Course of human Eve with another, and to allume among Nature's God entitle them, a decent to the Separation.

We hold these Truths to be instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers free Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abo its Powers in fuch Form, as to them thall feem tablified foodd not be changed for light and tra-Evils are fullerable, than so right themselves by ab ing invariably the fame Object, evinces a Delig

ERICA,

folve the Political Bands which have connected them equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of that they should declare the causes which impel them that they are endowed by their Creator with certain ineis... That so fecure these Rights, Governments are whenever any Form of Government becomes deskructive of these ent, laying its Foundation on fuch Principles, and organizing Prodence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long elthewn, that Mankind are more disposed to suffer, while But when a long Train of Abules and Uturpations, purla-

RECLAMATION OF having in direct Object

His has refused his Al He has called tog fatiguing them into

He has diffolved R

Hz has erected a Multitude of Ms has kept among us, in Tim-

He has affected to render the 3

Mr has combined with others t pretended Legislation Fox quartering large Bodies of Fox protecting them, by a s For cutting off our Trade w For impoling Taxes on us w

For depriving us, in many

By Charles Smith

or Laws; giving his Affent so their Acts of

